Client will be called once and a message will be left unless otherwise noted. If the client has not been in contact within a week, the referral will be closed.

About Services:

Currently, services are for clients 16 years and older. Client must be voluntarily seeking counselling and psychotherapy services. Brittany reserves the right to decline referrals based on goodness of fit. Clients with high levels of substance use will be encouraged to seek out a higher level of care and/or a care provider that specializes in addiction.

Private therapy is not a good fit for individuals not ready to commit to therapy and/or cannot attend their scheduled appointments. Clients who miss their initial appointment and do not further engage afterward, will be discharged. Clients who miss two or more appointments (no show or late cancellation with less than 48 hours notice) may be discharged.

There is a fee for service. Indigenous clients with status are able to have services covered and billed directly through the NIHB program. There is also ability to have services covered through extended health benefits through an employer.
